DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS:

SOUTH TRIMBLE, of Franklin.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

JAS. B. CANTRILL, of Scott.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,

R. B. FRANKLIN, of Franklin.

THIS is the Winter of our discontent, made so by the price of coal.

The breaking up of the coal strike by the President is much like his breaking up the beef trust.

A FRANK Kansas woman has advertised for a husband, but warns men looking for doll faces that they need not apply.

SOME one has sagely remarked: "If life were a thing that gold could buy, the poor could not live and the rich would never die."

A GERMAN medical journal reports the case of a man who was attacked by hay fever in Winter because he had cultivated hyacinths in his room.

It would cost a man $30 a day to live on mushrooms. On the other hand, 10 cents would buy sufficient flour to supply him with enough food to enable him to continue at hard work.

NEVER more let it be said that Philadelphia is slow and sleepy. A resident of that city wrote to a judge and asked for a divorce from his wife by return mail.

EVERY time a gold democrat gets a place on a democratic ticket the republicans rejoice with as much acclaim as though one of their own were chosen—because that is what it means in the end.—Columbus Press.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT's attitude toward the trusts is much like the attitude of a prize fighter posing for a photograph. He never moves for fear of spoiling the picture.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

MR. ROOSEVELT after all is not right up-to-date. If he were he would have to go a patent on that unique invention of his to the effect that there is no connection between the tariff and trusts.—Johnstown Democrat.

THE sign of the three golden balls will soon swing from the entrance to the treasury department at Washington. If you happen to be a Wall street banker you can pledge anything from watered stock to scrap iron. If you are a farmer you need not come around—Commoner.

THE name of Zola may or may not be remembered because of his literary work. But the name of Zola will ever be cherished because of the magnificent battle he fought to secure justice to Captain Dreyfus. That battle was more dramatic than any novel written by Emile Zola.—Commoner.

PERSONS who hunt in Kentucky during the game season will be compelled to pay a license of $5 for that privilege. This applies only to non-residents, and the law will be rigidly enforced. Those who violate it are liable to a fine of from $50 to $200 and imprisonment not exceeding 30 days.

THE Cynthia Democrat says: The Paris city council by a vote of 5 to 1, Thursday night rode roughshod over Mayor Perry's veto and gave the electric railway the right to enter the city. The company will begin work next Monday (yesterday) and the cars will go down Main street. Cynthia capitalists are back of the enterprise.

THE article in our last issue, entitled, "The Miner's Prayer," emanated from the prolific pen of the editor of the Winchester Sun, one of the best exchanges that comes to this office. It was an oversight on the part of the News in not giving the proper credit, instead of giving the credit simply to an "Exchange." Beg Pardon.

'PHONE 376.—On every Friday and Saturday I receive fresh consignments of the very best bulk oysters, and also receive fresh, crisp celery and cranberries. Leave your order. 'Phone 376. Doctor WM. SAUER.
